“When I had the privilege of leading the backup orchestra for Jenene’s appearance at The White House, I was motivated by her commanding talent and inspired by her genuine warmth and kindness. She captivated the room with her first note, and I marveled at her tremendous skill and seemingly effortless versatility as she leapt from opera to show tunes with thrilling success. Jenene is a beautiful artist in every way, and she leaves audiences cheering for more. I hope to collaborate with her again. She brings out the very best in the musicians around her, delivering moving performances that are completely entertaining.”

“As a talent buyer, I have booked hundreds (if not thousands) of artists in my career. It’s extremely uncommon to come across a talent as rare as Jenene. I can attest to the fact that she’s a true crossover artist because I hired her for a rock, pop and country show—not opera or Broadway music, which she’s well known for. She nailed it. Her New Year’s Eve performance received some of the most positive feedback I have ever heard from a venue in 25+ years in the entertainment industry. We got rave reviews for weeks! Run, don’t walk, to book Jenene Caramielo.”

“Jenene Caramielo is an amazing and versatile performer. Her genuine style, passion, and energy mesmerizes a crowd. I have a personal experience when we had Jenene perform at a private event at Tiffany Co. in Palm Beach, Florida. We have done many such events and she was certainly among the very best. Her beauty and voice are incredible while executing the perfect engagement with the crowd. She understands how to tailor her performance to the group she is playing to... whether it be an intimate gathering like Tiffany or a large on-stage venue. Jenene provided tremendous value for our event and was a guest favorite. We unquestionably would use her again. She is very easy to work with and has the willingness and ability to customize her performance to include multiple genres.”

“I’ve never in my career stuck my neck out in support of an entertainer. In Jenene’s case, it was a no-brainer. I knew from the first minute we met, and later when watched her in action, she had “it”... charisma, personality and of course, talent. Jenene is a humble and genuine; this is what draws the audience in on top of her diverse repertoire and stage presence. I will continue to highly recommend Jenene for any future performance.”
